

What You Need To Know About Healthy Start, Healthy Families Medicaid

Healthy Start is free Medicaid health coverage for kids from birth through age 18 (till the child's 19th birthday) and pregnant women who qualify based on family income.

Healthy Families provides no cost Medicaid coverage for the entire family-parents AND children.

A family's income will determine if they are eligible for Healthy Start or Healthy Families.

Here are some commonly asked questions:

Q: What will it cost me?

A: Families meeting Healthy Start, Healthy Families income guidelines can get coverage at no cost.

Q: What services are covered?

A: Healthy Start, Healthy Families covers these services if they are medically necessary:

- Doctors Visits
- Hospital Care
- Immunizations
- Substance Abuse
- Other Services
- Prescriptions
- Vision Services
- Dental Care
- Mental Health

Q: Can working families get health coverage through Healthy Start, Healthy Families?

A: Yes. More and more working families are getting health coverage for the entire family through Healthy Families.

For the entire family (parents & children) to qualify for health coverage, a family's monthly income must be within the Healthy Families income requirements. A portion of certain monthly expenses (i.e. child care, child support that is paid out) are not counted as a part of monthly income.

If a family's income is too high for Healthy Families, its children will be screened for health coverage through Healthy Start.
